

Stakeholder meeting

Food authenticity and traceability

Jožef Stefan Institute, Department of Environmental Sciences, Reactor Centre Podgorica,
Brinje 40, Ljubljana, Slovenia

September 7th 2018

8:30-9:00	Registration
	Moderator: N. Ogrinc
9:00-9:30	S. Kelly	An overview of the FAO/IAEA “Dairy origin project” and other Coordinated Research and Technical Cooperation Activities.
9:30-10:00	M. Kos Skubic	Food information regulation and testing methodology as a part of consumer protection
10:00-10:15	N. Kremlj	Comparative test of pasteurized and UHT milk
10:15-10:30	T. Eftimov	ISO-FOOD: A centralized repository of isotopic data
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
	Moderator: S. Kelly
11:00-11:20	R. Frew	Implementation of origin traceability systems - NZ experience
11:20-11:40	F. Camin	From research to industry: the case of PDO cheeses Grana Padano and Parmigiano Reggiano
11:40-12:00	M. Horacek	Control of declared geographic origin of food: some ideas about “why?” and “how?”
12:00-12:30	General discussion
12:30-14:00	Lunch & coffee
	Moderator: R. Frew
14:00-14:20	D. Wunderlin	Evaluation of origin of Argentinean foods by combined methods
14:20-14:40	N. Ogrinc	Authenticity and origin of milk and dairy products: research performed in Slovenia
14:40-15:00	B. Thornton	Can we provenience food in future farming sytem?
15:00-15:20	G. Bowen	Isotope landscapes for constraining region of origin
15:20-15:30	Closing remarks	